Record Breaking Floods Force Evacuations in Texas Crawford & Company® Catastrophe ServicesSM Continues to Provide Assistance

Mandatory evacuations have now been initiated for areas around the Brazos River and its tributaries. Four thousand national and state guard officials have been deployed to the area, and FEMA is expecting to place 30,000 people into shelters and provide assistance to more than 450,000 residents. In addition, President Trump has declared 18 counties disaster areas, which makes federal funding available to those affected. Unfortunately, more rainfall is expected through Wednesday, as much as 20 inches in the Houston-Galveston areas.

The Crawford® Catastrophe Services™ team continues its work with those affected by Harvey, working with clients to mitigate losses, no matter their size and scope. Whether you require assistance processing claims or supporting your staff, we are available to help you minimize loss and recover quickly. We are committed to helping you keep policyholder satisfaction high and aid in customer retention.

Crawford's additional services include:

- Global Technical Services™
- Forensic Accounting Services
- Vehicle Services
- Contents Services
- Contractor Connection®
- Marine and Transportation Services
